PARTNERSHIP BETWEEN SCIENCE AND BUSINESS

Ingredients Russia is a trade-only exhibition. Its standout feature is an extensive business programme.

The 'Food Ingredients of the 21st Century' International Forum and the 'Ingredient of the Year' industry competition took place within the exhibition, and gave attendees the opportunity to discuss how to make use of new technologies, and provided knowledge of development trends in the domestic and global industry.

The Food Technologists' School also gave food industry professionals a chance to broaden their knowledge.

"Ingredients Russia met our expectations as for food ingredients and exceeded them in relation to nutraceutical actives, as for the quality – it has increased a lot."

Elena Tolmacheva, Nexira

"The exhibition and its events are an excellent opportunity to learn about the market's current and future trends, innovative products and the latest developments from Russian and international companies."

A. Nechaev, President of the Union of Food Ingredients Producers
